Shemuel Aleph (1 Samuel) 1:1-28

With a line, connect the image with the corresponding verse.

Now there was a certain man of Ramathaim Zophim, of the mountains of Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephraimite.
Shemuel Aleph (1 Samuel) 1:1

This man went up from his city yearly to worship and sacrifice to Yahweh of hosts in Shiloh. Also the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, the priests of Yahweh, were there.
Shemuel Aleph (1 Samuel) 1:3

And she was in bitterness of soul, and prayed to Yahweh and wept in anguish.
Shemuel Alef (1 Samuel) 1:10

And whenever the time came for Elkanah to make an offering, he would give portions to Peninnah his wife and to all her sons and daughters.
Shemuel Alef (1 Samuel) 1:4

He raises the poor from the dust and lifts the beggar from the ash heap, to set them among princes and make them inherit the throne of glory.
“For the pillars of the earth are Yahweh’s, and He has set the world
upon them.”

Shemuel Alef (1 Samuel) 2:26-36

Mark the smiley face if the sentence is correct or the surprised face if the sentence is false:

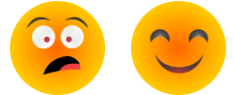

Samuel grew up and was accepted before Elohim and before men.

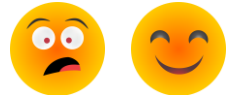

Elohim is pleased with Eli, for he honors Elohim more than his children.

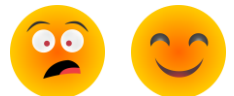

Elohim honors those who honor him, and those who despise him will be despised.

Yahweh promises Eli, that of his seed there will always be a priest to minister in his sanctuary.

The sign that Yahweh gives to Eli is that in one day his two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, will both die.

Yahweh will raise up a faithful priest who is after his own heart and will walk anointed before Yahweh every day.
