Yahweh provides in the desert

With the help of an adult, read Exodus (Shemot) 15:20-27, 16 and 17:1-7 in the Scriptures.

Israel is happy, because Yahweh once again showed his power to defend them.

They praised and danced in honor of Elohim.

Do you remember which instrument they used to praise Yahweh?

Draw it in the green box.

But the people of Israel's joy was short-lived, for when they reached the first obstacle, they were afraid, judging and criticizing, instead of being humble and crying out to Elohim for help, even when they had before them the pillar which showed them that He was with them.
