After Samuel's death, David went to the wilderness of Paran, where he did good with Nabal's herdsmen. However, Nabal did not want to do good to David and David decided to go to war against Nabal. Nabal's wife, Abigail, heard everything and decided to appease David's anger with some gifts (v. 25:18). Search the image and write down as many as you can find.

Shemuel Aleph (1 Samuel) 26

In chapter 26 the story of David sparing King Shaul's life, and him telling David that he would make peace with him, is repeated in almost similar fashion.

Draw a line through the correct answer.

When Shaul heard about David he took with him:

1,000 men

3,000 men.

10,000 men.

When they see Shaul asleep, Abishai tells David that:

spare his life.

wake him up and talk to him.

let him kill him with the spear.

David tells the people of Shaul from the top of the mountain:

Why have you not guarded your King?

that he will soon kill Shaul.

he came to give himself to Shaul.

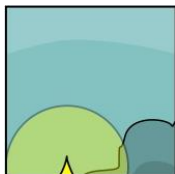

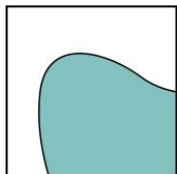

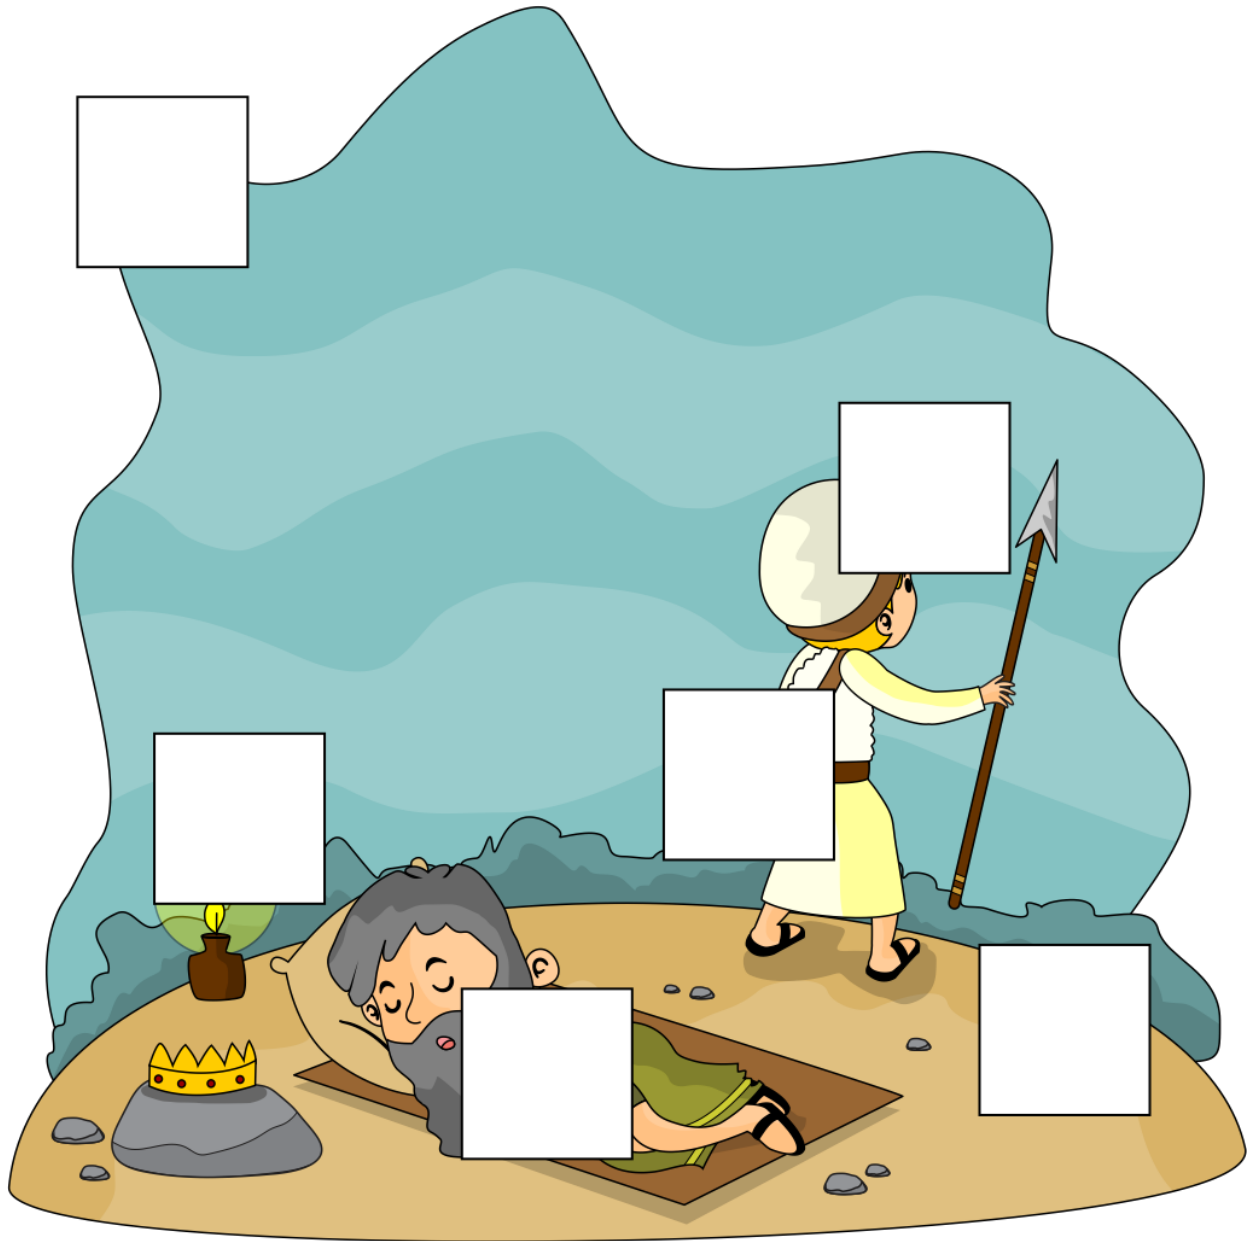

Shaul answers David, saying:

You'll die now.

who are you?

May you be blessed, my son David!
