

The Priests

With the help of an adult read from the Scriptures Exodus (Shemot) 28

Look closely at Aaron the priest and the garments of honor given to him by Yahweh, then find and encircle the silhouette that corresponds to him.

Connect with lines the name that corresponds to each garment.

TURBAN

SASH

URIM AND THUMMIM

EPHOD

ROBE

BREASTPLATE

TUNIC

BELL AND POMEGRANATE

Color each triangle green if the sentence is correct and red if it is not correct.

Aaron and his sons were chosen by Elohim to be His priests.

Aaron and his sons were to wear the same garments.

The priests' garments signified great honor.

The following colors were used for the elaboration of the priests' robes: green, orange, black and brown.

The breastplate should be square.

On the breastplate were the names of the 12 tribes of Israel.

The bells were to be of fine silver.

On the turban was to be engraved in fine gold leaf the phrase "HOLINESS TO YAHWEH".

The turban was to be made of linen.

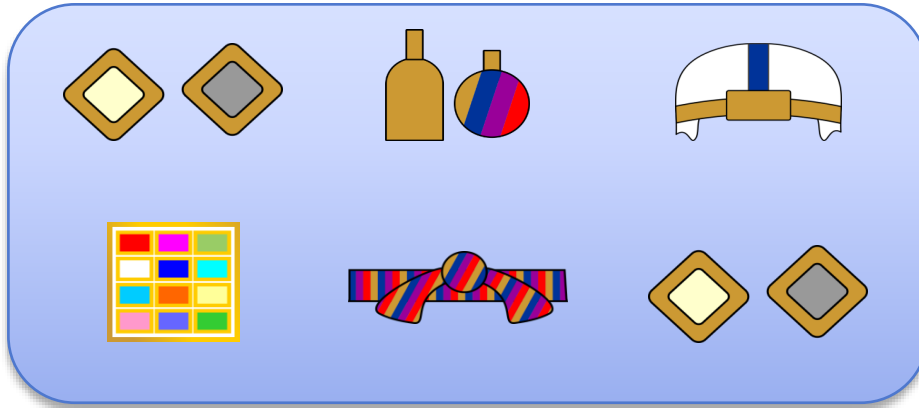

The clothing of Aaron's sons had many colors.

The names of the children of Israel were to be engraved in any order.

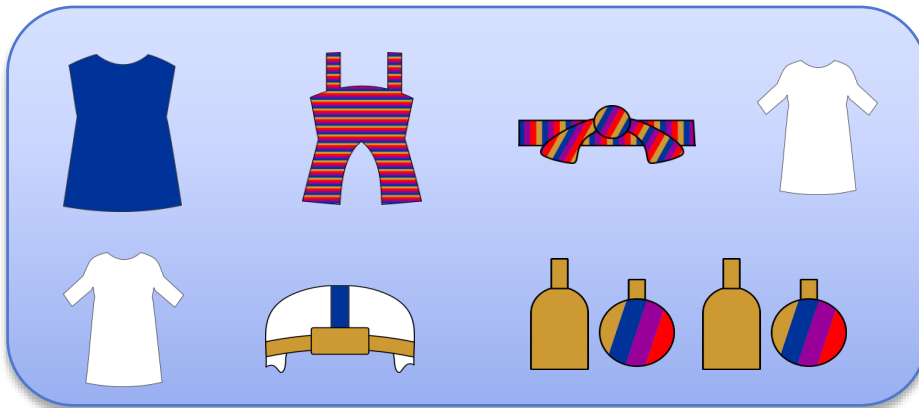

Find and circle the repeated image in each set.

1

2

3

4

Aaron must quickly find his son, help him find his way.

