

Birth of the first patriarchs

Jacob, deceived his brother Esau to obtain his birthright, then deceived his father and managed to obtain the blessing that was for Esau. Remember?

Next, we will see that Jacob was also deceived, this leaves us a great teaching, which by the way we also find in the Scriptures (Matthew 7:12 Therefore, whatever you would that men should do to you, do also to them, for this is the Law and the prophets).

Search in the Scriptures Genesis (B'reisheet) 29 and 30

If the statement is correct, circle the happy face with blue color and if it is false, circle the surprised face with red color.

 Laban was Jacob's uncle

 Jacob lived with Laban

 Jacob loved Leah

 Jacob was deceived

 Jacob did not marry

 Rachel had no children

 Leah loved Jacob

 Rachel fled from Jacob

Did Jacob want to marry Leah? _____

How many years did Jacob serve Laban for his two wives? _____

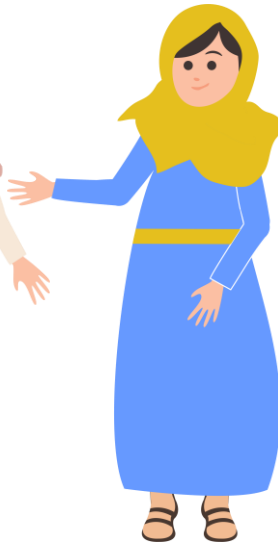

Did Leah feel slighted? _____

Next, find the names of Jacob's sons in order of birth. Place each son with his mother, painting the appropriate box.

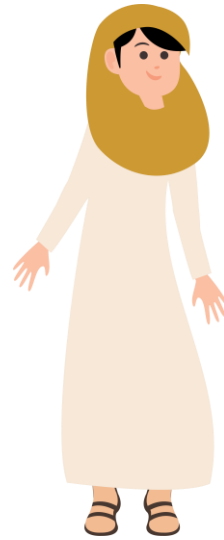

Example: Reuben is Leah's son.

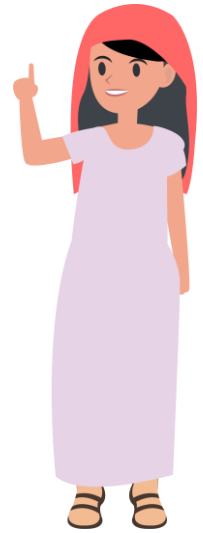

Bilhah

Leah

Rachel

Zilpah

Reuben

Simeon

Levi

Judah

Dan

Naphtali

Gad

Asher

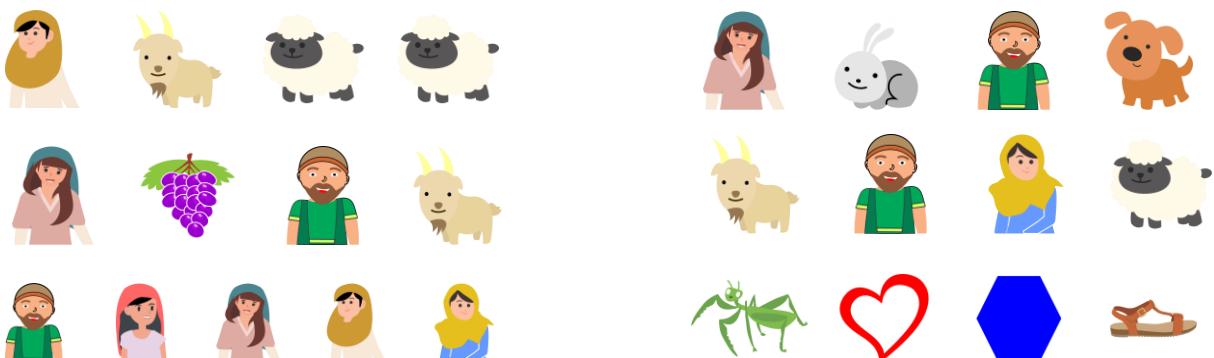

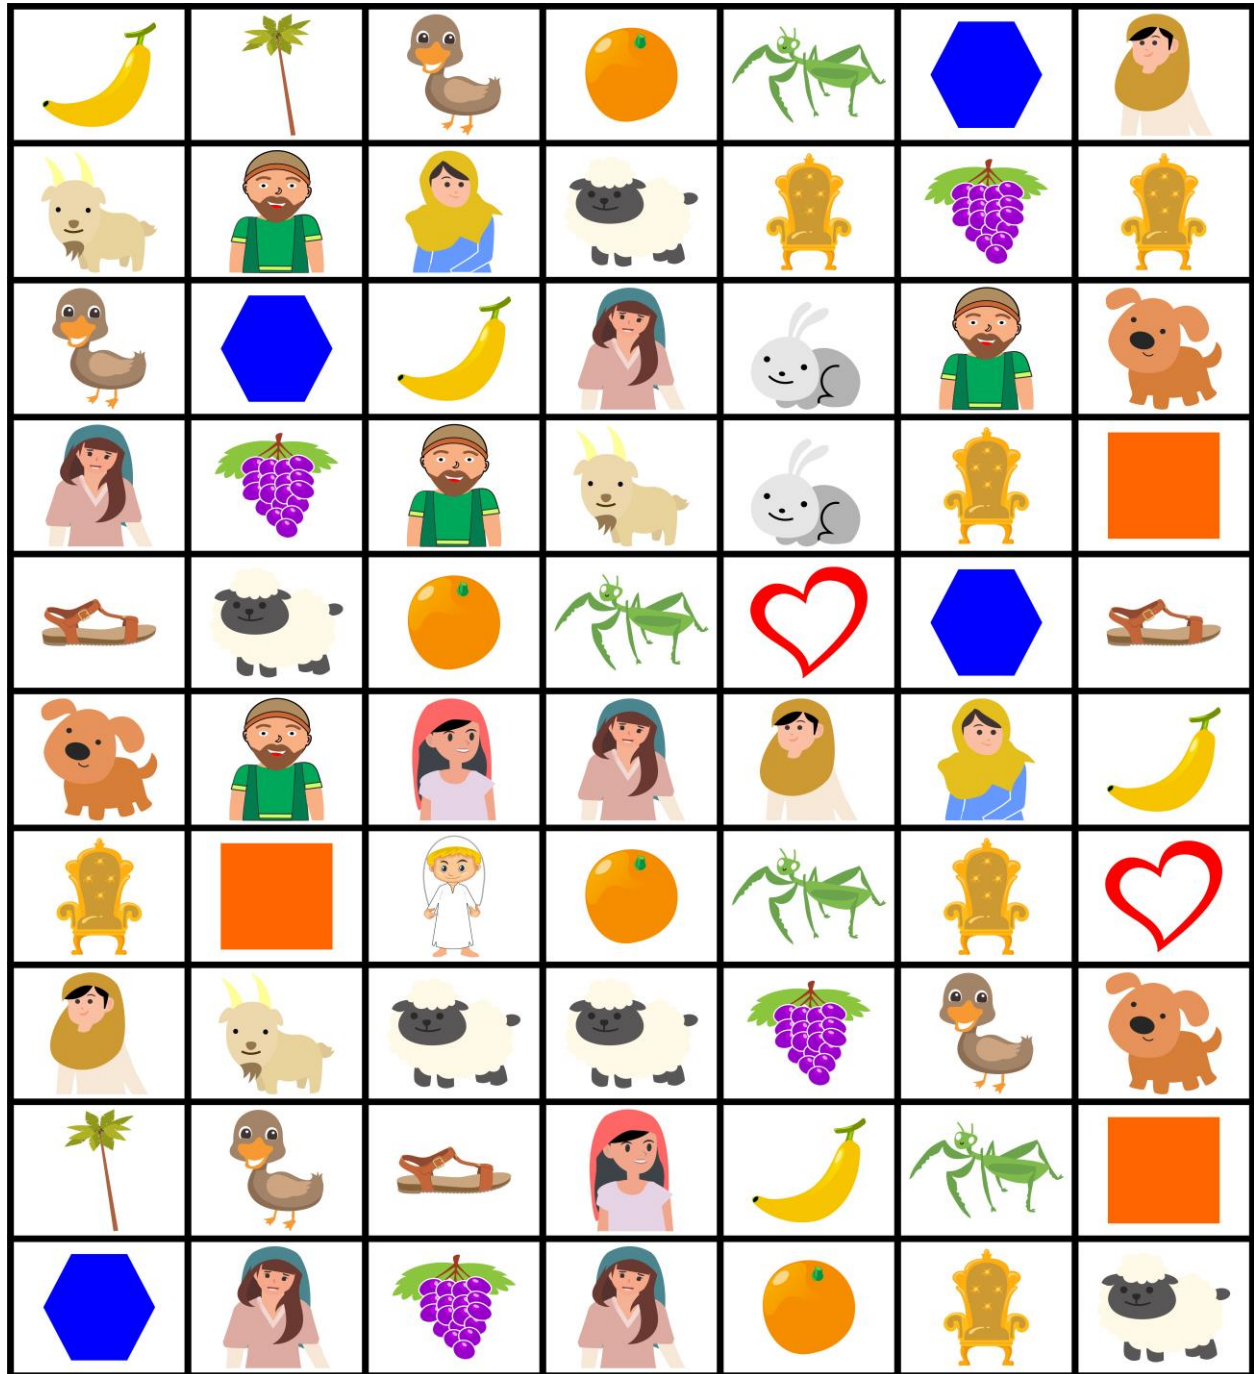

Issachar

Zebulun

Joseph

Benjamin

Find the patterns from the list below and enclose them in the image soup.

Help Jacob find each of his animals, using different colors for each path.

