Shemuel Aleph (1 Samuel) 30:1-15

Color blue if the answer is YES and green if NO.

The Amalekites invaded Ziklag and ravaged it and set it on fire.

YES NO

They took everyone captive, and put them to death.

YES NO

David and his people, when they heard of it, lifted up their voices and wept.

YES NO

David's two wives were also taken captive.

YES NO

David inquired of Yahweh and He said to him, "Flee, do not go after them."

YES NO

David set out with 400 men, but 300 were left halfway.

YES NO

They found an Egyptian man who had not eaten for 3 days and 3 nights.

YES NO

The Egyptian man said he had been abandoned by the Amalekites.

YES NO

This man did not participate in the invasion and looting of Ziklag.

YES NO

David swore that he would not kill him if he took him to where the troops were.

YES NO

David had every reason to remain sad and, at the same time, frightened by what the people wanted to do to him. But David, once again, showed where his confidence and strength lay.

Arrange the letters and write the word you find in the line to form the sentence that shows in whom David trusted.

Just as David was strong in Yahweh, we must also have Elohim as our stronghold.

With the help of an adult, cut out and assemble this fortress. Color the verse and with string or yarn hang it in your home.

Answer: Who do you think wrote this psalm?

Now David was greatly distressed, for the people spoke of stoning him... But David strengthened himself in YAHWEH his Elohim.
