

B'reisheet - In the Beginning (Genesis)

Elohim created the heavens and the earth, separated the light from the darkness and called them day and night.

Elohim created the expanse called the heavens.

Elohim separated the gathering of Waters from the dry land and called them seas, and ordered them to produce plants.

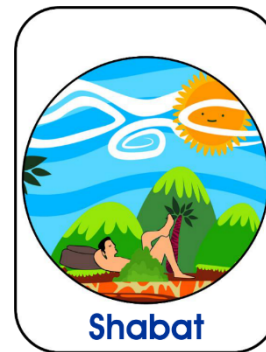

Elohim created the sun, the moon and the stars.

Elohim commanded the sea to produce living creatures and birds.

Elohim commanded the earth to produce living beings and created man from the earth in His image and likeness.

Elohim rested from all His work, set aside the seventh day and blessed it.

Complete the following verse: B'reisheet (Genesis) 1:1: In the beginning Elohim created the _____

I invite you to memorize the verse and share it with your family and friends.

According to what you learned, match the number of each day with its respective figure of creation.

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

Answer:

What is your favorite day of creation? _____

Who created all things? _____