

In this lesson we will learn the importance of keeping Yahweh's commandments by trying to keep ourselves as pure and set-apart for Him as possible.

With the help of an adult read from the Scriptures
Shemuel Beth (2 Samuel) 11:1-27

If the statement is correct, enclose the smiley face and if it is false, enclose the surprised face.

Bathsheba, the woman King David coveted, was unmarried.

Bathsheba conceived a son by King David.

Uriah, Bathsheba's husband, did not want to sleep in his house.

King David told Uriah the whole truth.

Uriah died on the front lines of the battle against Amon.

David sent away Bathsheba and her son.

With the help of an adult read from the Scriptures
Shemuel Beth (2 Samuel) 12:15-23

Even when King David repented of the sin he had committed, it had a consequence, his son would die and there was nothing he could do to prevent it.

Find the 7 differences.

SEARCH HERE

CIRCLE HERE

With the help of an adult read from the Scriptures
Shemuel Beth (2 Samuel) 13:11-15 and 13:26-29

As time went by, King David's son, Amnon, took his sister Tamar by force, which made King David and David's son Absalom very angry. David decided in his heart to end his brother's life for having committed such a sin against his sister, and then fled for 3 years. These great errors committed by these young men greatly embittered the life of King David.

Follow the strokes and join the words to change the bad that David's sons did into good.

Anguish

Tranquility

Faking

Sincerity

Force

Release

Abhor

Loving

Resentment

Forgiveness

Flee

Facing

With the help of an adult read from the Scriptures
Shemuel Beth (2 Samuel) 15:1-17

Tragedies continue to befall King David because some time later, his son Absalom wishes to take his place as king, so David flees with his family and servants away from his son.

Help King David keep himself safe from his son Absalom.

With the help of an adult read from the Scriptures
Shemuel Beth (2 Samuel) 18:9-15 and 19:1-7

Finally, Absalom dies on his way to battle against his father, which causes enormous sadness to King David. But in spite of this, he must pull himself together to resume his position as king.

Circle the correct answer with green color.

On what animal was Absalom riding?

- a. A camel.
- b. A horse.
- c. A mule.

How did Absalom get entangled in the terebinth tree?

- a. By his head.
- b. By his clothes.
- c. By his sword.

Why was there a man who did not want to harm Absalom?

- a. Because he was a coward.
- b. Because David commanded it.
- c. Because he did not carry a sword.

Why did the people of Israel not return joyful and victorious from the battle?

- a. Because they had no booty.
- b. For the death of Absalom.
- c. Because they lost the battle.

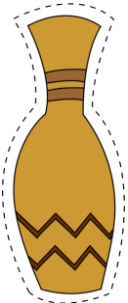

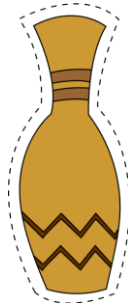

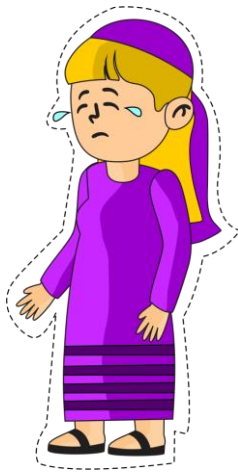

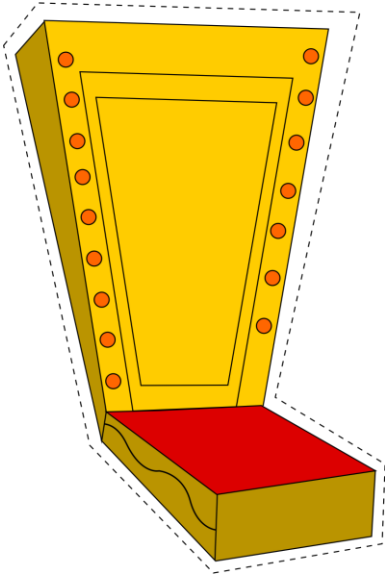

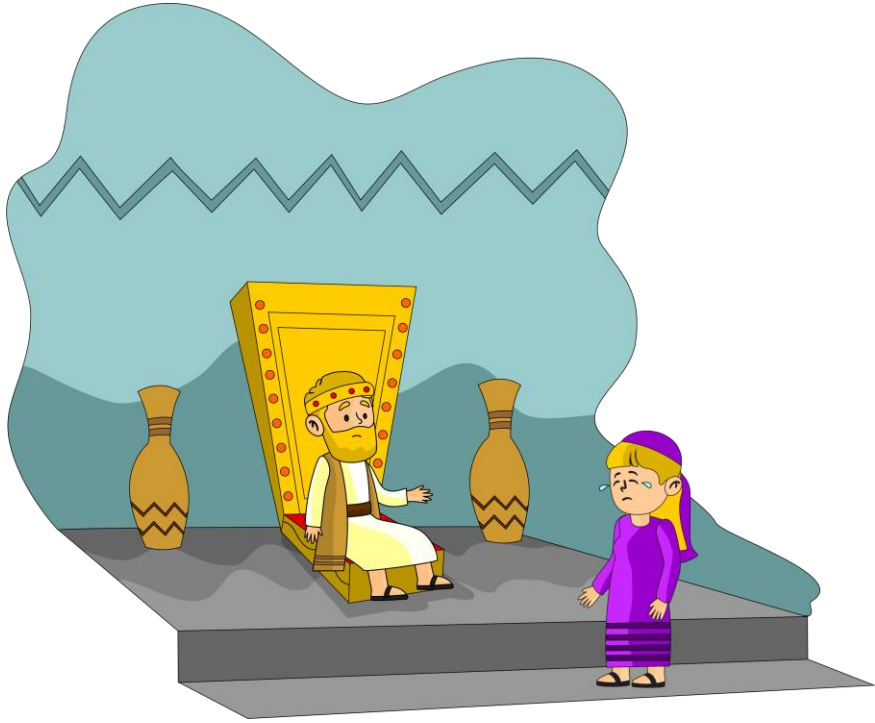

What did King David cry aloud?

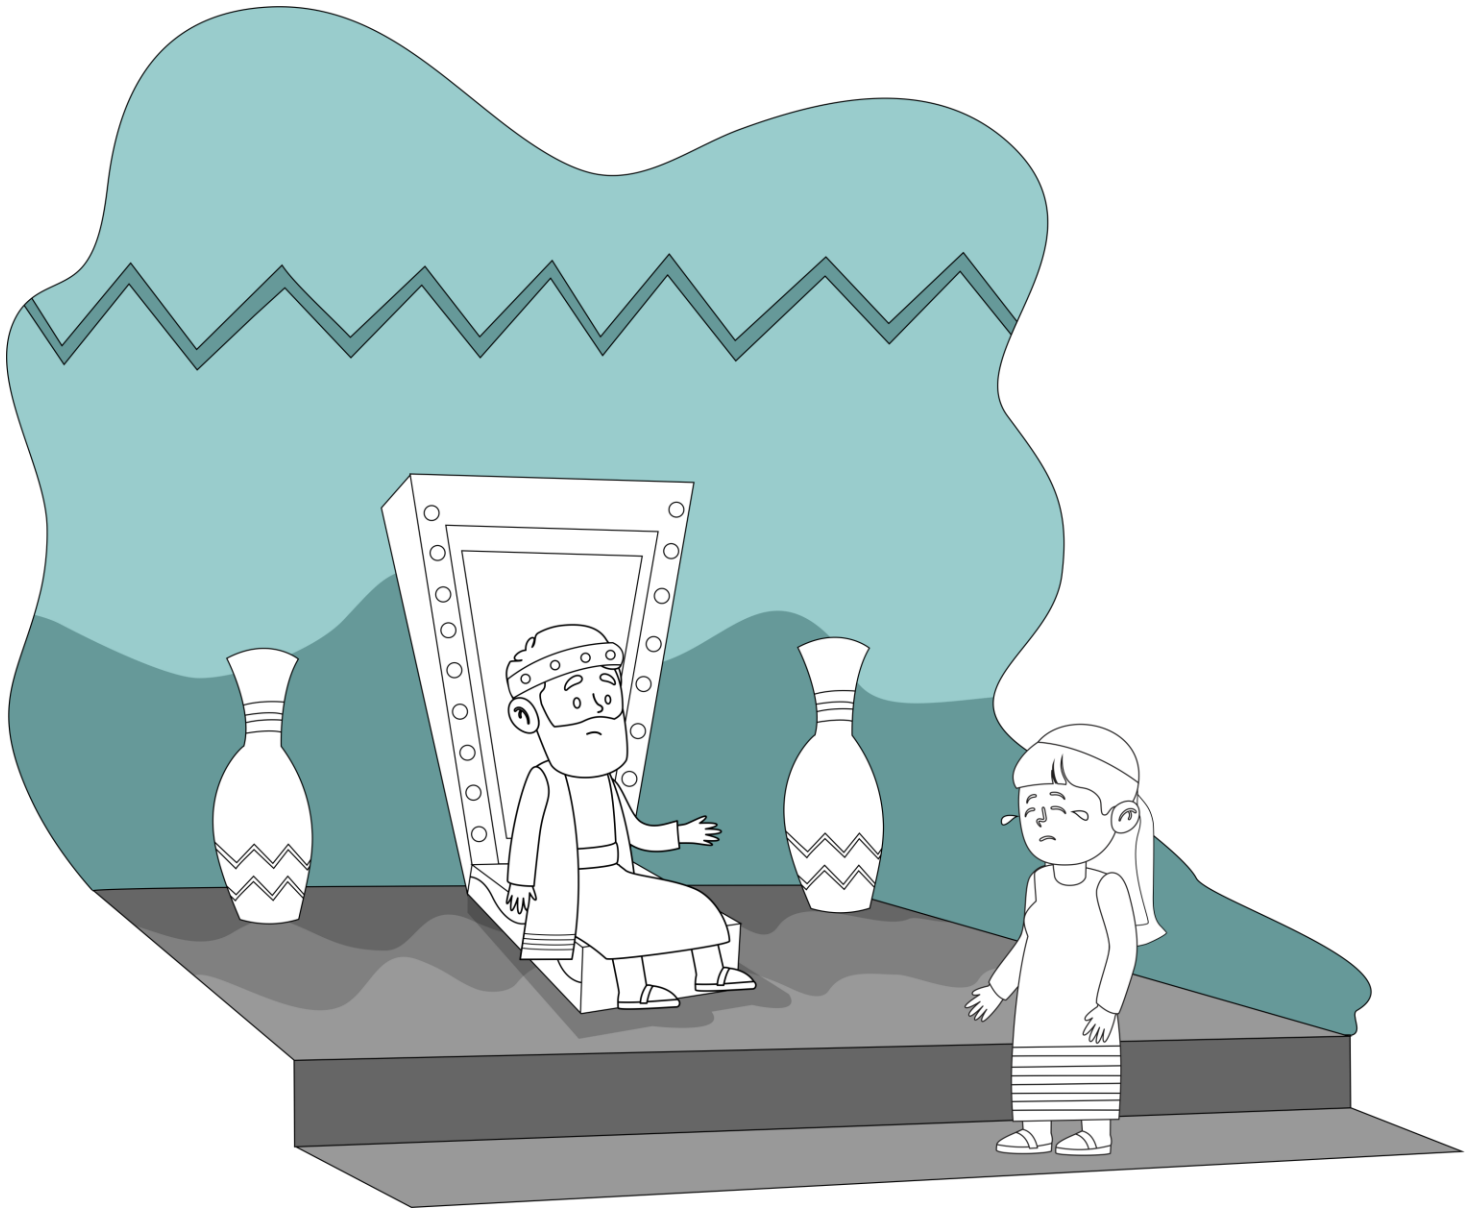

- a. O Absalom, my son, my son!"
- b. I will be king again!
- c. Everyone flee to the mountains!

Who commanded King David to go and speak to the servants and princes?

- a. Micah.
- b. Nathan.
- c. Joab.

With the help of an adult, color, cut out and paste the following images into the scene on the next sheet:

Yahweh, how they have increased who trouble me! Many are they who rise up against me. Many are they who say of me, "There is no help for him in Elohim." Selah

But You, O Yahweh, are a shield for me, My glory and the One who lifts up my head.

Tehillim (Psalms) 3:1-3

