Melachim Aleph (1 Kings) 3:16-28

In this story, two women claim to be the mother of the same child. King Solomon proposes to divide the baby into two halves to resolve the dispute, but at that moment, the real mother reveals herself by renouncing her maternal rights to save the child, which demonstrates her genuine love. Then, the king stops the executioner before the sword touched the child and proclaims that the child be given to the first woman as she was the true mother.

Melachim Aleph (1 Kings) 4:20-34

Read the statements and circle the smiley face if it is correct and the surprised face if it is incorrect.

Judah and Israel were few people who did not live well.

King Solomon's daily provision was very abundant.

Judah and Israel lived securely in Solomon's reign.

Yahweh gave Solomon wisdom, exceedingly great understanding, and largeness of heart.

Solomon's wisdom was not greater than that of Ethan, Heman, Chalcol and Darda, the sons of Mahol.

Solomon composed 3,000 proverbs and 1,005 songs.

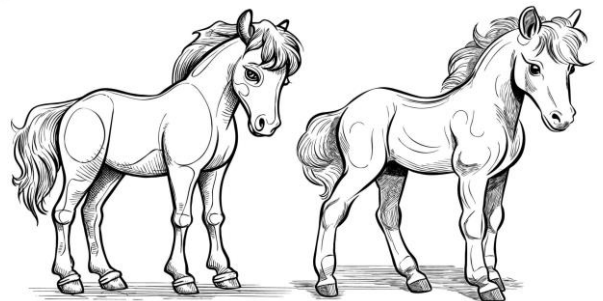

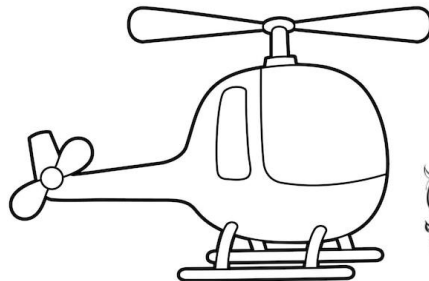

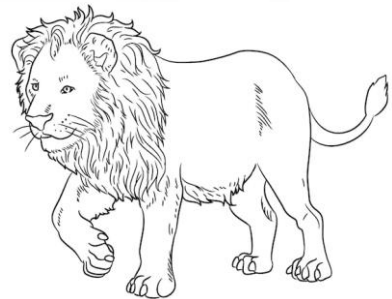

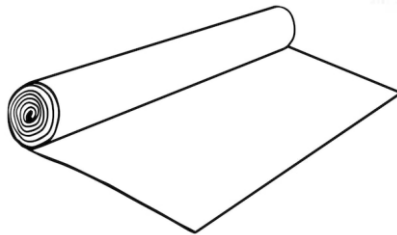

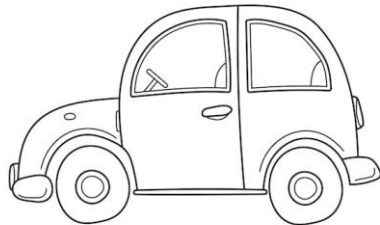

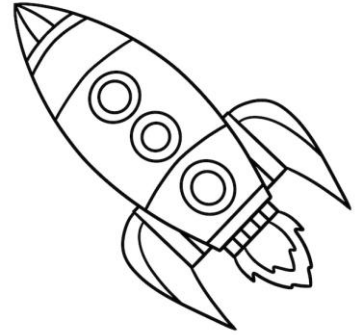

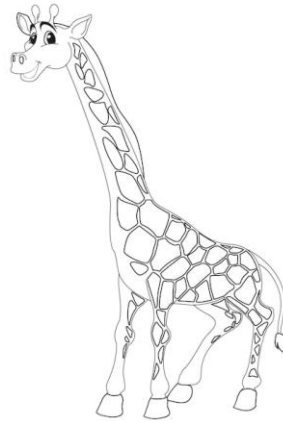

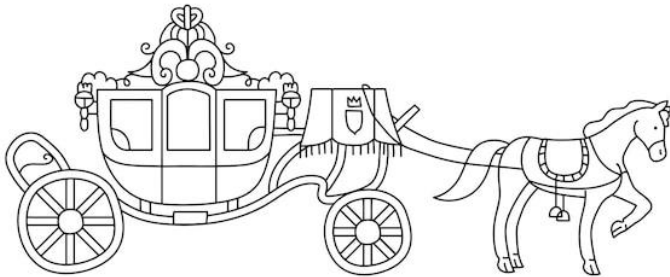

No one wanted to hear the king's wisdom at that time.

King Solomon's riches that he received from Yahweh are also described in Divre Hayamim Beth (2 Chronicles) 1:14-17.

Read the above passage and color some of the belongings that King Solomon possessed in his kingdom.

With the help of an adult, cut out the pictures and arrange the story of King Solomon with the moms fighting over the baby.

Answer: Can you think of any other ideas of how to have solved the problem?

Two women appear before King Solomon with a baby.

Solomon decides to have the baby split in half.

The real mother offers to give up the baby in order to preserve its life.

King Solomon decides to give the baby to the mother who showed true love for the baby.

How much better to get wisdom than gold!
And to get understanding is to be chosen rather than silver.
