A messenger of Yahweh appeared in a dream to Yoseph and said, "Fear not, your family is safe in Israel."

King Herod was ready to kill the children of Bethlehem.

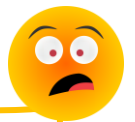

Yoseph took his wife and child and they fled to Syria.

Yoseph and his family were in Egypt until the death of Herod, so that what the prophet said, "Out of Egypt call My son," would be fulfilled.

Jeremiah prophesied: "A voice was heard in Ramah, a great mourning, weeping and wailing; Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they perished."

A messenger of Yahweh appeared to Yoseph and said, "Arise and go to the land of Israel and face your enemies."

Yoseph came out of Egypt and went to Israel and dwelt in Nazareth, for it was prophesied that Yeshua would be called a "Nazarene".
