

With the help of an adult read from the Scriptures
Mattityahu (Matthew) 3:1-12

Remember a few lessons ago we learned about the announcement of the birth of Yeshua and Yochanan (John)? Well, now Yochanan has grown up and Yahweh has given him an important mission!

Read and draw a line under his mission.

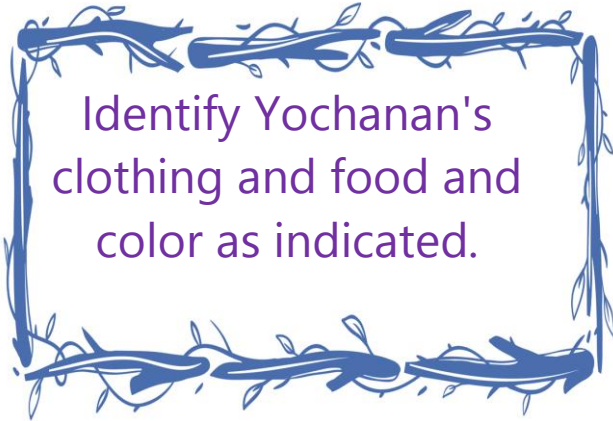

The voice of one crying in the wilderness: Forgive sins and bring salvation to Israel.

The voice of one crying in the wilderness: Condemn the wicked and bring judgment on those who are disobedient.

The Voice of one crying in the wilderness: Prepare the way of the Master, make His paths straight.

According to what is indicated in Mattityahu 3:4, Yochanan was a man who dressed very simply and humbly, and his diet did not consist of expensive dishes.

Let us strive each day to also be pleasing sons to Yahweh, reflecting Yeshua.

Draw yourself in the mirror that reflects Yeshua's image.

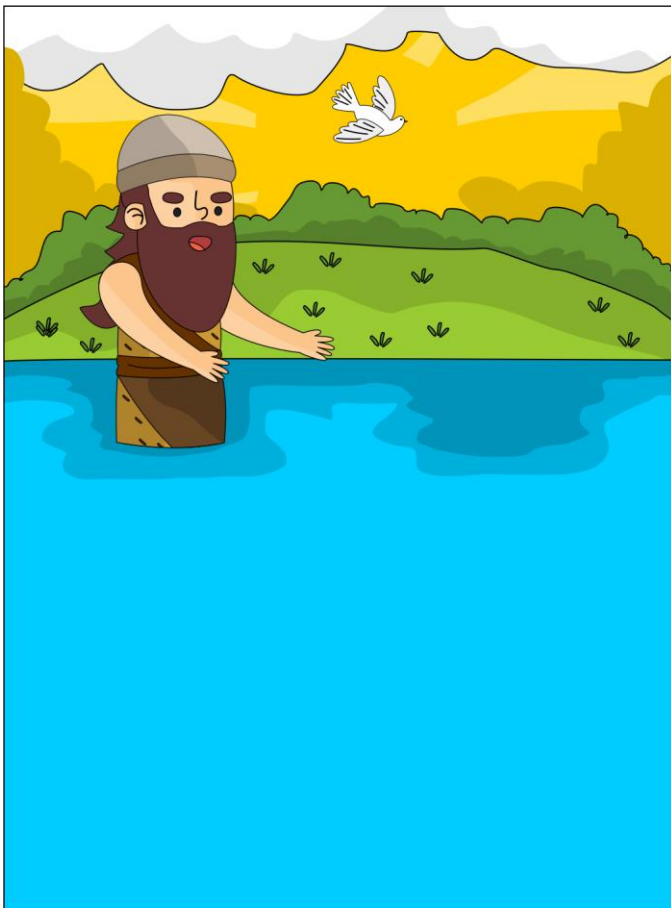

With the help of an adult, cut out and follow the instructions. You will need a popsicle stick or wood and acetate or butter paper or blue cardboard representing water.

Move the wooden stick down until Yeshua is completely covered with water.
