

ח ט כ ל מ נ ס ע

Beit Sefer

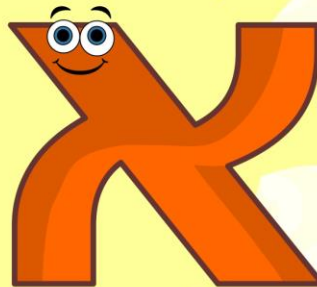

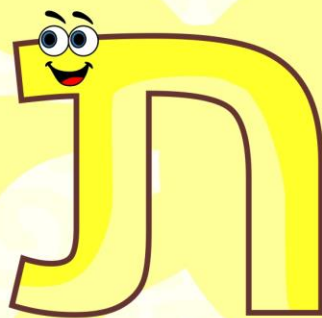

ז

פ

ו

צ

ה

ק

ד

ר

ג

MY FIRST HEBREW STUDY
CHAPTER 5

ש

ב

ת

א

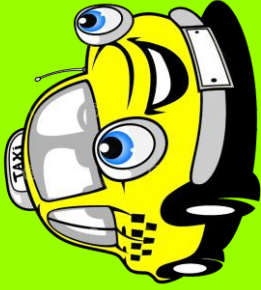

Beit Sefer

Tet

The letter Tet, can be pronounced
as a "T" example:

Taxi.

Tracing practice for the letter Tet. The first row shows a solid 'T' with a red arrow indicating the stroke direction from top to bottom. The following rows contain dashed 'T's for tracing. A large pink cartoon 'T' is at the bottom right of the tracing area.

Yod

The letter Yod, can be pronounced as; "Y" example: Yak

Handwriting practice area for the letter Yod. It consists of ten rows of writing lines. The first row shows a solid Yod with red arrows indicating the stroke order: a vertical line down on the left, a vertical line down on the right, and a horizontal line across the top. The following nine rows contain dashed Yod characters for tracing. A small blue cartoon Yod character is positioned at the bottom right of the practice area.

